

Child Abuse

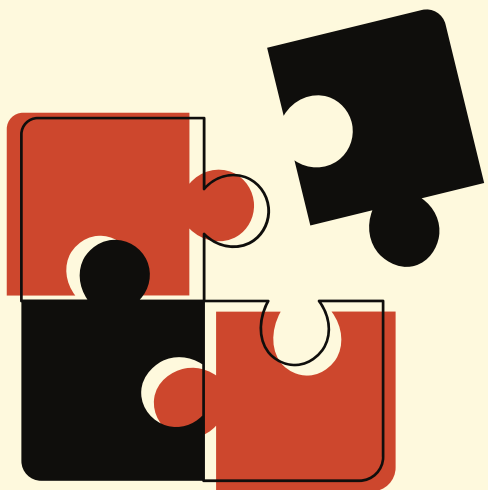

Know the Facts

At least 1 in 7 children have experienced child abuse and/or neglect in the past year

Approximately 2 million children received prevention services in 2019.

Fewer than one-quarter of confirmed maltreatment victims are removed from their homes because of an investigation or alternative response.

Rates of child abuse and neglect are 5 times higher in families with low socioeconomic status compared to families with higher socioeconomic status.

In the United States, the total lifetime economic burden associated with child abuse and neglect was approximately $428 billion
